

House Group Discussion Questions, Revelation 3:14-22

- 1) Jesus is called the “Amen, the faithful and true witness.” How has Jesus shown himself to be the faithful and true witness in your own life this week or in the last month?

- 2) What do you think that Jesus is pointing to when saying He wishes our works were either hot or cold? What would hot or cold works look like?

- 3) In our relationship to God, what does lukewarm-ness look like? Where are you being lukewarm?

- 4) How are you trusting in your own riches and gifts to please God and be a good Christian? What are those riches?

- 5) Jesus says we are really wretched, pitiable, poor, blind and naked. Have you seen your own sin come out in some area of your life recently?

- 6) Jesus tells us to buy from him gold, white garments, and salve? How are we to do that when we are poor? What does it mean to preach the gospel to yourself each and everyday?

- 7) Where in your life have you kept Jesus outside? Where do you sense that He is knocking in your own life?

- 8) Talk about and discuss what it can look like to be zealous and repent yet love and serve others? In what areas do you need to repent and be zealous in your devotion to Jesus?
